Description

This fabulous estate has everything you need to live in maximum comfort within warm spaces full of charm without detracting from the abundant nature that surrounds this estate, where the traditional features of Mallorcan constructions are combined with more modern ones, with materials and complements that enrich every corner of the house.

It is situated in the municipality of Manacor, on the east coast of Mallorca, within a paradisiacal environment of the Majorcan countryside, close to an exclusive golf course and only 15 minutes away from the beach.

The property consists of 3 buildings with 300 m² of surface inside a plot of 10.500 m². The exterior spaces of this estate are the main protagonists and are composed of rustic porches, terraces, large Mediterranean garden and swimming pool; true green oasis that are an invitation to enjoy the open air, long after-dinner conversations and unforgettable moments under the warm climate that Mallorca offers us.

The main house has 158 m² and is divided into 4 bedrooms, one of which is located on the upper floor and 2 bathrooms, one of them en suite. A large and cosy living room with dining room and fireplace, full of light, leads us to a covered porch, very natural that transmits peace and serenity, with a dining area and another one with an outside kitchen where dinners in the open air and summer nights are a real treat. The fully equipped kitchen is independently arranged and has a central island.

At the rear of the property is the large garden, where you can also relax and play, with the swimming pool and a beautiful shed with large glass windows and black frames where a living room with fireplace and large dining table has been set up, creating an intimate and unique atmosphere. Around the garden there are also several porches, as well as an independent guest flat with kitchen and bathroom and a basketball court.

To highlight that the property has large parking space for several cars.
