Description

With an unbeatable location in the heart of Palma's Paseo Marítimo, an exceptional place for strolling, playing sports and enjoying the wide range of restaurants and clubs that the extensive coastline of the island's capital offers all year round, this fantastic flat with spectacular sea views has been completely refurbished in a historic building located on the seafront.

In this privileged position, the property has 170 fantastic square metres carried out with the best qualities and first class natural materials under a contemporary design with high ceilings that seeks warm and comfortable atmospheres in spaces full of natural light thanks to the large glass doors and windows that also frame the magnificent sea views. It has a stupendous 19 m2 terrace where nothing interrupts the panoramic views of the port and the Mediterranean.

The property has been developed in three spacious bedrooms with en-suite bathrooms and fitted wardrobes as well as a guest toilet. A large designer space with access to the terrace houses the living room, dining room and integrated kitchen with central island fully equipped.

Great opportunity to live with all the comfort and spectacular sea views over the bay of Palma.
